

keyboard & input

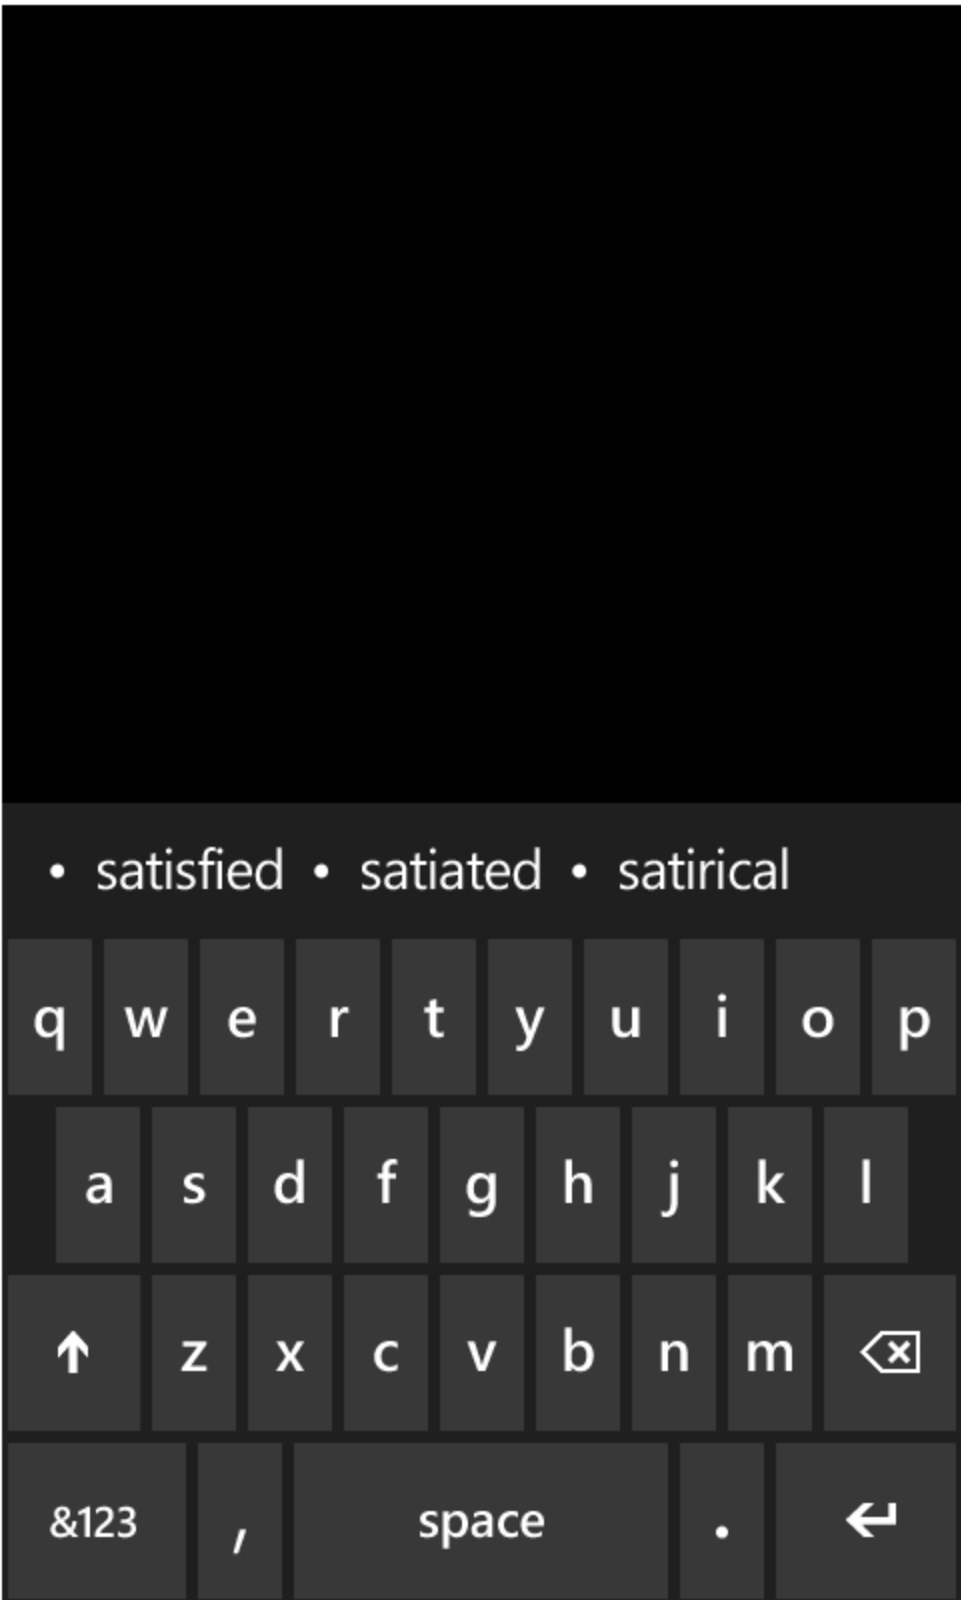

The on-screen keyboard is used to input text on a touch screen and is deployed automatically when an edit control becomes active. The on-screen keyboard closes automatically when the user taps outside of the edit control or presses the back button. There are seven different on-screen keyboards available, depending upon input scope.

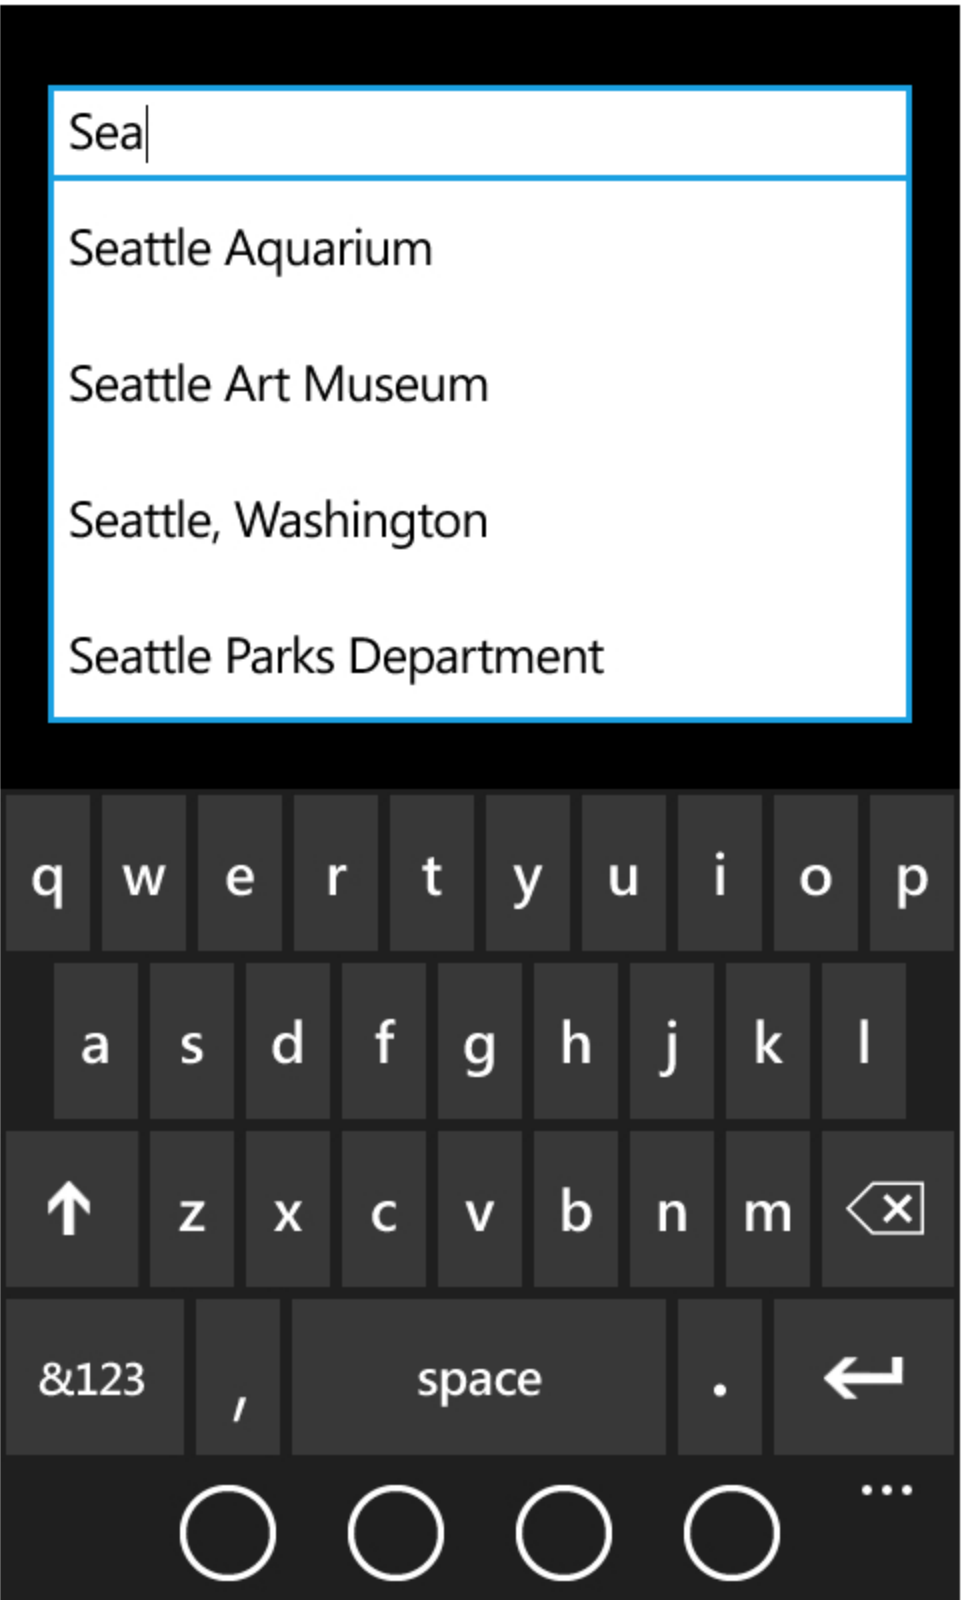

DEFAULT KEYBOARD
Shown as lowercase English

DEFAULT KEYBOARD
Shown as lowercase English in light theme

CANDIDATE WINDOW
Used to expose word suggestions for faster typing

AUTOSUGGEST WINDOW
Offers suggestions as characters are typed